

The Los Angeles Basin Section of CWEA

Dinner Meeting and Presentation May 4, 2017

2016 LABS Research Award Winner L.A. County Sanitation Districts' Wastewater Research Section Digester Gas Hydrogen Sulfide Control Using a Biotrickling Filter

Please join LABS to learn how hydrogen sulfide (H_2S), a digester gas contaminant and a contributor to air pollutant, can be controlled using a digester gas biological filter, resulting in reduced chemical usage, improved safety and lower treatment costs .

When: Thursday May 4, 2017
6 pm Social Hour
7 pm Dinner and Presentation

Presenter: Dr. Andy Lee
LACSD Research
Engineer

Where: Frantones Restaurant
10808 Alondra Blvd.
Cerritos, CA 90703

(Cross Streets 605 Fwy/Alondra Blvd/Studebaker Road)

$20 Members

$25 Non-members

$10 Students or Retires

RSVP: <https://digestergas.eventbrite.com>

Questions: Dangary1@verizon.net